How you will be assessed

Your training is competency based, meaning that you will need to provide evidence that you have met the required competency. This evidence will be generated and or collected by:

- Tasks and assessments you undertake during your study
- Work placement or workplace evidence signed off on by your supervisor.

In order to attain these units of competency you will need to be assessed. These assessments aims to demonstrate that you have the required skills and knowledge and that you can apply these in the workplace. During your training session you will be required to complete a class assessment on the information provided. This is a closed book assessment. This is used to demonstrate that you have the required knowledge for attaining this unit.

If you answer incorrectly, then you will be allowed further attempts to choose the correct answers to the questions after reviewing the information provided again. You will be allowed three attempts during your training session after which you will need to speak to one of our trainers to better understand how we can help you attain this unit of competency.

The assessor will also use your Supervisor Third Party Report to confirm your application of the skills and knowledge required.

Achieving a result of “Satisfactory” for all of the assessment and evidence requirements of a unit is required to achieve a result of “Competent” for the Unit of Competency.

Where a result of “Not Satisfactory” is achieved then your trainer will assist you in getting to the required result of “Satisfactory”.

Where a result for a Unit of Competency is “Not Yet Competent”, then your trainer will assist you in meeting all the requirements of the Unit within the required time.

Outcome

The qualification is nationally recognised. Upon successful completion of the required assessments you will be awarded with a statement of attainment for the following:
